

AmeriCorps College Completion Coaches (Coaches) provide intensive support to students in reaching academic milestones that are proven to increase their likelihood of success. Coaches also engage students in activities and events that create awareness and address community needs.

Coaches undergo ample training, and are provided with valuable professional development, networking, and guidance and support with career and "Life After the Corps" goals. Coaches will serve approximately 30 hours per week, or 900 hours over 6 months, and in return receive a modest Living Allowance and an Educational Award upon completion of the service agreement.

AmeriCorps members receiving federal-assistance, based on need, should be unaffected by their living allowance.

This AmeriCorps service opportunity begins in January, 2017 through August, 2017. Apply soon! Positions are available until filled.

Coaches engage in the following:

- Assist a cohort of approximately 100 students each semester (200 students total over an academic year).
- Complete "coaching contacts" throughout the academic year to help students adjust to college life, identify and remove barriers to their success and problem solve.
- Communicate regularly with students through phone, e-mail, and in-person while on-campus.
- Help students build momentum in completing coursework.
- Connect students to campus and community resources to address barriers.
- Conduct workshops covering topics like study skills, financial literacy, time management, etc.
- Plan civic engagement opportunities for students & the campus-at-large through AmeriCorps days of service.
- Collaborate with college faculty and staff to increase student success.
- Track and monitor data to report on daily and quarterly activities.
