Don Taylor Memorial Bio

Don Taylor was a 1995 graduate of Liberty High School and later received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University.

Don worked and lived in the aviation community. Starting as baggage handler, quickly working his way to station manager.

He transitioned from the Airline side to the General Aviation side of the industry, where he quickly gained even more passion for the industry.

Don managed some of the largest FBO's, Aircraft Charter Departments, Ground Handling and MRO's in his career, he eventually bought the FBO here at Youngstown his home to be close to family and close to his passion.

Despite his many talents, he was best known for his leadership skills and compassion.

Don always made his team better. He often inspired skeptical teammates to achieve higher levels of success in aviation.

It is in honor of Don Taylor and his legacy as an Aviation Leader and Aviation Advocate that JETS presents a scholarship to perspective Aviators looking towards their career in the industry that Don loved so much.
